

Diversity Policy for Crandall Public Library

The Crandall Public Library welcomes, values, and celebrates the differences inherent in its employees and members of its community, and as such, is committed to creating and maintaining a workforce that is inclusive. The Library understands that a rich diversity of people and talents, supports, embodies, and gives open expression to the Library's organizational values and implementation of the Library's mission.

Adopted by the Crandall Public Library Board of Trustees, October 23, 2013.

Reviewed by the Crandall Public Library Ad Hoc Policy Review Committee (no changes necessary), September 6, 2024.
