BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

The Lindstrand family emigrated from Sweden in the 1890's and eventually settled in the Queensbury and Glens Falls area in the early 1900's. Ellen Lindstrand was born in 1929 as one of ten children. Five of her siblings included in the collection are Henry "Red", Harry, Eric "Rocky", Nelson, and Mary. Three aunts and uncles are also included: Clifford and Emma Hayes, Fred and Alma Ricketts, and Albert Wester.

SCOPE AND CONTENT OF THE RECORDS

The Lindstrand Family Photograph Collection consists of 292 prints. Most are black and white, 17 are in color. The photographs document the domestic life of a Queensbury and Glens Falls, New York area family from World War I until 1967, though the bulk of the photographs were taken between 1935 and 1955. In addition to the prints, several post cards and two holiday greeting cards are also included. About half of the photographs are identified.

Ellen Lindstrand Gonyea was not only the compiler of the photograph collection, she actually took many of the photographs herself and arranged them by family groups. Five of her siblings and their families are represented in the photograph collection: Henry "Red" and Evelyn, Harry and Francis, Eric "Rocky" and Marion, Nelson and Ruth, and Mary.

Also included in the collection are three of Ellen's aunts and uncles and their respective families. These include Clifford and Emma Hayes, Fred and Alma Ricketts, and Albert Wester, who was married several times. The collection also contains a section devoted to neighbors of the Lindstrand family, some of whom are identified.

The collection consists mainly of photographs of Lindstrand family members, relatives, and friends. There are photographs of family groups, also many photographs of children. Events shown include weddings, graduations, and Christmas celebrations. There are several photographs of Kay Lindstrand with nuns and priests. There is one photograph taken at Lake George, one at Lake Sunnyside, and one showing a billboard for the Halfway House restaurant.

One of the principal subjects reflected in some of the photographs is family involvement in World War II. Eric, Harry, and Nelson Lindstrand are all shown wearing military service uniforms. There are also two photographs of Fred Ricketts in his World War I uniform. There is also a postcard of the royal family from Holland 1955 sent to a family member while touring Europe.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE RECORDS

Box 1

All but 38 of the 292 photographs are stored in Box 1. Ellen Lindstrand Gonyea arranged the photographs according to family units and neighbors. Many unsorted prints were arranged into a miscellaneous series. The arrangement of Box 1 is as follows: siblings, aunts and uncles, neighbors and miscellaneous. The actual family names are arranged in the following order: Eric "Rocky" and Marion Lindstrand, Harry and Fran Lindstrand, Henry "Red" and Evelyn Lindstrand, Mary Lindstrand, Nelson and Ruth Lindstrand, Clifford and Emma Hayes, Fred and Alma Ricketts, and Albert Wester. Many of the prints are identified. Box 1 contains the 17 color prints.

Box 2

The 38 prints in Box 2 were segregated because they are oversized in relation to the items in Box 1. The prints are arranged in the following folders: Eric and Marion Lindstrand, Clifford and Emma Hayes, Fred and Alma Ricketts, Albert Wester, Neighbors, and Miscellaneous. The arrangement of items in the folders are by identified people first, and then unidentified people.
